

London Stamp Meeting

1890

Derby Branch.

Alp 1 pney
43

Miss A. J. Broth

Castle Kevin

Annamora

Ireland

W. Wilson

The Parents' Review

MORNINGTON HOUSE
BRADFORD.

24-25 I have coming your front page to give her interest - I should like to see the July issue with willingly. For her influence in the paper is so good for the extraordinary

I learn the chief thing tells the end of my letter - I am so pleased to be obliged by you for writing time to write an article which will be most interesting & valuable to many kind letter. How tempting your description

Thicklow is! I am always promising

myself a repeat - but

Mr. Stopford
I did hope he would make little

21p3 pneu 43

but: somehow. I never manage it. We are happy enough to have several warm sympathies in Ireland. May I ask you to introduce
the Parents' Review
where you can? It is a mission, is it not?
to bring education

21p4 pneu 43

thought home to people whether they agree or whether they differ. I am glad you enjoyed the London Home Meeting. I think people were very hearty in sympathy. Thank you for taking my little book - I need not let you it comes "out of the pulpit" - I cannot

Must. you enough for making Dublin possible to dear Fanny - she is depressed in self-esteem & absolutely requires the support & confidence of a friend who believes in her! (We all do - don't we?) in whom she places the full & generous trust she gives her friends.

I am afraid I must not say all the thanks you shall I send you a parcel of Novels, for which I am very grateful

1251 Pneu 43

~~H. Bradton~~

1890

Dublin Branch?

Miss A. J. Brooks

11 Herbert Street

Dublin -

Specimen of Mr. Williams

22pneu43

1893. Nov. 43

The Parents' Review

MORNINGTON HOUSE
BRADFORD.

Love for my brother I send you most kind love to Mr. Williams.
 your praise of his darling 'Tina' will do her good. She is such a very charming woman.
 I trust I will see you very much

Charlotte M. Green

1893 pleasant - letter. Yes - "the mission is a great - one"

I want - your help -

Will you do this?

Will you get a few

isp4pneu43

ladies to help you launch a sort of programme of the likely people in Dublin introducing the Review the syllabus of the Society - speaking of the grave importance of the work - by the time there are 100 subscribers - i.e. - 100 people in earnest on the subject, I might have

isp5pneu43

the great pleasure of coming over to your "Sunday Little City" - holders meeting, & your a branch of the work. I am quite sure our work would succeed with you - I have had so many deeply interesting letters from Irish ladies.

I am sending a packet of 25 copies of the Review (with the permission of the Directors) - the syllabus, &c. but - if you can undertake

This great work for us, you shall have as many more as you want.

Mr. Stopped Bank has been good enough to stop to many of his way to help us by.

Your words about - the young platters my heart greatly, it - is all true. I shall get - over Colony - I am glad you are a Wordsworthian - a poet, is it not - i 3 p 1 pneu 43

X

Early letters from

Miss Mason

Miss Brooke

Staying at Melnick Home

Dorby Branch

The House of Education, Arbleside.

23 p 2 p n e u 43

My dear Sir,
I am very much affected by the message
from you!
We
are desolate without any Brothers
to keep us fresh
&
green.
You
must not
X

C. W. Mason

join search of fresh fields another year!

Thank you so very much for the photo-
I cannot present it.

Think it does any justice to either you or Frances - but I am by degrees

reading you both into it & it will be a pleasure when the reading is 'proven' is concluded - An

does feel - to like & see a good deal
in both pieces -

though at first on only feels they are unworthy the original.
It was very sweet
of you to send me
one.

I am back here -

is full swing of work with a very thankful heart - because Hankin has done so much for me. Tomorrow

I go to Derby, to open a "Branch" - You will easily understand that I am busy -

I am wondering if you send my friend

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

Mr. Hemsted in St. Mary or did she fail to print you out -

It is very pleasant to think of the day of having you again - I miss you awfully
I know & Dublin is a bit without you. I am glad people learn to appreciate her. - You make me

mentions - 13 pt. pncd

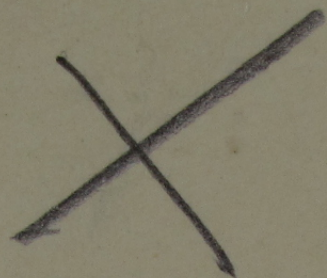

Special of dear Mr. <sup>2</sup><sub>2</sub> Brooks - I suppose the counts in the "all very well" - please give her my much love - Also to Miss Anne. & tell her how much I appreciate her charming paper - long held over that people might have the pleasure of it in the holidays.

I enclose prospectus.
There are 2 or 3 vacancies for after times but - the house is filling fast so it wd be well for y. friend i 4 p 1 Pne 4 43

1892

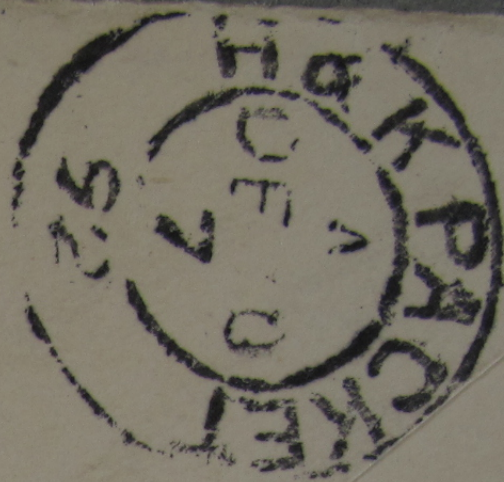

Miss Angel Brooks

11 Herbert Street

Dublin

14p2pneu43

The House of Education, Ambleside.

you dear ladies have done - it is pleasant to look back & think you were here -

It is good of you to interest yr. friends in our work & to distribute our papers - warm thanks.

Thank you for Zuber's hymns - it is stuck up before me at my writing table.

I have these extracts re

Wardsworth are not coming.
It is too much the lampy of our outsiders - that is the attitude I have always felt - he took up towards the sweet - sometimes your faith - but never mind.

He is in the land of more light & fuller now I know all that he would only faint believe.

I spent a most pleasant - evening with Mr. Felt on "that length" this week - I don't think it is much colder than there elsewhere - but - this cold everywhere now - I speak very pleasantly of your visit to her. I am so glad to hear that Mr. Brook is the better for his visit to England - "do it again!"

 is the counsel - & I hope to see you all next year - Ask Misses Brown with my kindest regards if и 5-й пр. речу 43

The House of Education, AmbleSide.

July 27 - 94

My dear Jim Angel
How have you been
of you I write me
such a charming letter!

I have thought
much of you in this matter - but - I think

I have not seen actual only by what seemed good for this College (its Principal) I have always felt - that he does Y. have not scope for quite his best - in Dublin - except as far as you are concerned, the charming circle

 to wh. you were introduced her - I cannot promise her
 so much social enjoyment - but most hope that nature will make up

15 p4 pneu 43
1897 a little -

As for you, it distresses me to think how much she will miss you -
as well as how much you will miss her -

Not a word of coming to Ambleside
this year!
Always affectionately
Chas. Mason.

i b p 1 pneu 43

1898 after 4:15

arrived at Scale House

Miss Anael Brooke
11 Herbert Street
Dublin

i B p 2 pneu 43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

My dear Sir,
I am very sorry
to hear that you
are ill & hope
you will be able to return
to your work
soon.

I am very sorry
to hear that you
are ill & hope
you will be able to return
to your work
soon.

line of greeting
as I may not write much - to tell you what a huge comfort & help

My dear Frances, is - I think too she is as happy as an angel - a regret will allow -

I ~~thought~~ to see you if I can for a little visit early in May - Could you come to us about the 6th? I spend part of the following week

About my Mother's death.

1903

Miss A. Brooke
11 Herbert Street
Dublin

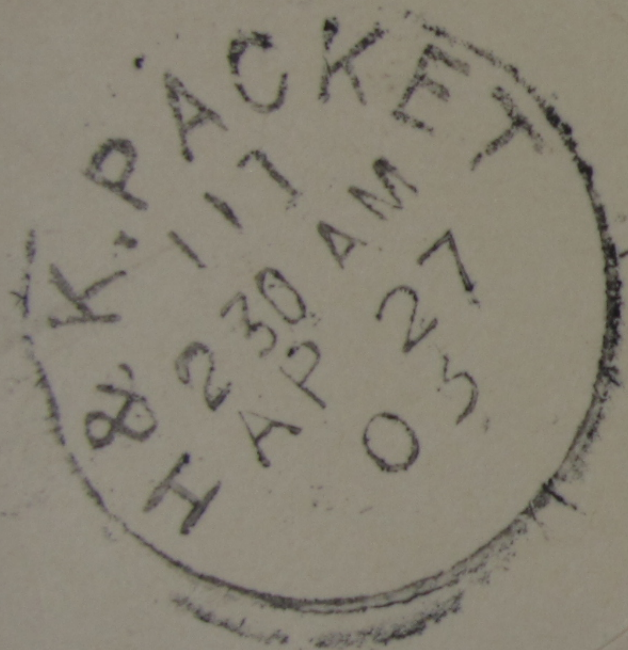

43 penip 72

Answer

л 7 р 2 р н е и 4 3

Stained face.

Please find my very loving sympathy to Miss Cecilia &
Mrs. Hester

House of Education, Ambleside.

44.

1903

My Dear Angel

May I send a word of heartfelt
sympathy to you revered sisters in this great sorrow.

I know your grief
is tempered by a sense of the fitness of such

2
I believe that you are much in my Humphreys' chamber; kindly yr. friend

Courtesy, Kindness Simplicity, will be delightful memories
to you when the pain of grief is a little over.
For herself, no doubt,
she has long been
as Wordsworth says, -
"with only such degree of sadness left
as may support longings of pure desire."

And strengthen love,
Rejoicing secretly
In the sublime attractions of the Grant.
Or in the words of a better simpler teacher
- to depart & be with Christ & her has been far better.

Dear Fanny feels it much: she came down after writing to you I think with a very tear-am and, painless & Sweet like the dear lady's life - but it makes a dreadful hunger of the heart when one's occupation has gone.

I am so glad to have known the sweet gracious presence & to remember that she has been in this house.
 Her beautiful

Ms. William Brewster

i 8 p 1 pneu 43

The House of Education,
Ambleside.

April 30th - 07

My dear Angel

May I send a
word of loving sympathy to you & your dear Sisters. You have been again brought

3-

you all to feel that the word for the Brother you have lost is

"Servant of God, well done!"

I know how idle words are in such a storm

as yours, but I must speak one word of sympathy with love to your sisters

& yours truly

Chas. Mason

face to face with the great mystery & I know that to you it means nearness to
God. such comforting nearness that you will hardly fully feel your loss until later -
It must comfort
Lobl